RESOLUTION NO. 2007-13

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

Anza Borrego Desert State Park

WHEREAS, Anza Borrego Desert State Park, established in 1933, is California's largest State Park totaling more than six hundred thousand acres, containing five hundred miles of dirt roads, twelve wilderness areas, and miles of hiking trails; and,

WHEREAS, Anza Borrego Desert State Park contains more than four thousand cultural and archeological sites from the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail and the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail, to the sacred sites of the Cahuilla and Kumeyaay Native Americans; and,

WHEREAS, Anza Borrego Desert State Park continues to preserve the integrity of its cultural and archeological treasures, strives to interpret and educate visitors about the value of the resources, and provides visitors with an appreciation and sensitivity to these important cultural resources; and,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that official appreciation and praise on behalf of the State Historical Resources Commission are extended to Anza Borrego Desert State Park; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution be recorded in the minutes of the State Historical Resources Commission and a suitable copy presented to the Anza Borrego Desert State Park.
