RESOLUTION NO. 2015-06

RESOLUTION OF RECOGNITION

Chloe Esparza, Rafael Ibarra, and Cameron Quijada

WHEREAS, in 2015 Chloe Esparza, Rafael Ibarra, and Cameron Quijada participated in the National History Day in California contest; and,

WHEREAS, their project, entitled “There It Is, Take It: The Leadership and Legacy of William Mulholland,” was entered in the junior group documentary category and was selected for the California Historic Places award; and,

WHEREAS, the documentary, in line with the National History Day theme “Leadership and Legacy in History,” analyzed both leadership that William Mulholland exhibited during her life and the legacy, both positive and negative, his work has left for the future; and,

WHEREAS, the effects of William Mulholland’s work on both the natural and cultural landscapes of southern California is undeniable and is an important part of our history;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that official recognition on behalf of the State Historical Resources Commission is given to Chloe Esparza, Rafael Ibarra, and Cameron Quijada for their outstanding 2015 National History Day in California entry;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution be recorded in the minutes of the State Historical Resources Commission and suitable copies presented to Chloe Esparza, Rafael Ibarra, and Cameron Quijada.
