I. CALL TO ORDER

Legal notice having been duly given and a quorum present, the State Historical Resources Commission (Commission) meeting was called to order at 9:02 a.m. by Chair Marshall McKay.

II. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Chair McKay led those assembled in the Pledge of Allegiance.

III. INTRODUCTION OF COMMISSIONERS AND STAFF

Chair McKay welcomed all present, and asked the Commissioners to introduce themselves. State Historic Preservation Officer (SHPO) Julianne Polanco introduced herself, Chief Legal Counsel Tara Lynch, Kathryn Cotter, Legal Counsel for California State Parks, and Office of Historic Preservation (OHP) staff in attendance.

IV. WELCOME

The Honorable Terry Tornek, Mayor of Pasadena, welcomed the Commission and staff to the City of Pasadena, speaking of the value of preservation, and Pasadena's active commitment to preserving the community's heritage, including more than forty citywide historic districts.

V. RESOLUTIONS

A. World War I National Remembrance

Chair McKay read the resolution into the official record. Courtland Jindra and Bill Betten, Co-directors of the California WWI Centennial Task Force, accepted the resolution.

B. Linda Dishman – Twenty-five years with the Los Angeles Conservancy. Chair McKay read the resolution into the official record. Ms. Dishman accepted.

VI. APPROVAL OF FEBRUARY 3, 2017 MINUTES

Commissioner Brandes moved to approve the minutes as presented.
Commissioner Moss seconded the motion. Action: Motion carried by roll call vote, with Commissioners Hansen, Hoyos, and Sriro abstaining.

VII. COMMISSION AND STAFF REPORTS

A. Chair's Report

No report given. Chair McKay used his time to thank Mayor Tornek and the City of Pasadena for hosting the Commission meeting.

B. Executive Secretary's Report

SHPO Julianne Polanco opened her report by welcoming newly appointed Commissioners Hansen, Hoyos, and Sriro, and expressing thanks to Commissioner Beth Edwards Harris for her recently completed service on the Commission and her continued participation on the Commission's Modernism Committee. SHPO Polanco then reported on the in-office and off-site activities of the OHP. She invited Deputy SHPO Jenan Saunders to provide an update on the public input process for the creation of a new Statewide Historic Preservation Plan.

VIII. POWERPOINT PRESENTATION OF CONSENT CALENDAR PROPERTIES

Presented by Jay Correia, State Historian III/Registration Unit Supervisor; Amy Crain, State Historian II; and William Burg, State Historian II.

IX. CONSENT CALENDAR

A. National Register of Historic Places, New Nominations – Part 1

1. Great Wall of Los Angeles
(Latinos in Twentieth Century California MPS)
Los Angeles, Los Angeles County
State Level of Significance; Criteria A, C; Criteria Consideration G

2. Edward Roybal House

- Stephen Mikesell, Mikesell Historical Consulting

Speaking in rebuttal to the opposition: Larry Ames and Martha Heinrichs
Speaking in rebuttal to the rebuttal: Pierre Luigi Oliverio and Stephen Mikesell
The public comment period then concluded.

All Commissioners entered into discussion regarding the nomination. Issues addressed during discussion included differences in eligibility thresholds of the National Register of Historic Places and the California Register of Historical Resources, the level of significance of the nominated property, and the aesthetic and community value of the property.

Commissioner Brandes moved to approve the nomination as presented. Commissioner Moss seconded the motion. Action: Motion carried unanimously by roll call vote.

XI. NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES Progress Report

Chair McKay updated the Commission on the various properties that had been listed in the National Register of Historic Places since the last meeting of the Commission, as noted in the meeting agenda.

XII. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Kyle Jarrett, California resident, reported that between 2011 and 2016 he successfully visited all 1,111 Landmarks, and found that having the history of sites outlined on the Landmark plaques, and shared by docents at many of the sites, greatly enriched the understanding and appreciation of that history. He encouraged the Commission and the OHP to consider producing plaques in a material other than bronze, which is attractive to thieves for its monetary value.

XIII. COMMISSION DISCUSSION AND ACTION ITEMS

None.

XIV. COMMITTEE REPORTS

SHRC committee meetings are open to the public, and members of the public may serve on the committees. Committee meetings are open to the public. Information about the committees is available at www.ohp.parks.ca.gov/shrcommittees.
